

WEDDINGS

local couples

ALEC & JACQUELINE

09.17.2016

San Francisco couple Alec Cierny, 34, and Jacqueline Ravenscroft, 31, tied the knot at the Ravenscroft Ranch on Palomar Mountain, where the bride grew up and where her father still lives. Her dad built the infinity patio where the two attorneys exchanged their vows, and their 150 guests (many of whom spent the night in tents on the property) danced under the stars on the back deck, where the bride's parents had exchanged their own vows 32 years prior. "The beauty of the ranch never ceases to amaze us," Jacqueline says.

WEDDINGS

local couples

AFTER DETAILS
 Overnight guests spent the following day playing lawn games and lounging in these picturesque hammocks.

WEDDINGS

local couples

BEFORE SUNSET
 Indian summer was the inspiration behind the couple's nuptials, a feeling perfectly captured here.

FAMILY AFFAIR
 The bride's mother hand-dyed the blue ombre dinner napkins, her cousin created the florals, and her law school friend did the invites and the signage.

